THE RIGHTEOUS BROTHERS

BILL MEDLEY & BUCKY HEARD
LOVIN' FEELIN' FAREWELL TOUR

Haugh Performing Arts Center
presents

THE RIGHTEOUS BROTHERS LOVIN' FEELIN' FAREWELL TOUR

Program to be announced from the stage

There will be no intermission

Blue-eyed soul pioneers The Righteous Brothers are back! With a string of #1 classics, including the most played song in radio history, You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin', the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame duo of Bill Medley and Bobby Hatfield topped the charts in four decades. After Bobby's death in 2003, Bill Medley continued to perform to sold-out crowds around the world, but fans and friends pleaded with him to keep The Righteous Brothers alive.

The Bill Medley/Bucky Heard pairing came as something of a happy accident. Medley says it just seemed right, "He fits The Righteous Brothers live performance show perfectly. And, we've even recorded some new material together, I'm really excited!"

Bill Medley is truly one of the iconic figures in American music history. His instantly recognizable baritone voice has anchored some of the biggest recordings of all time. He's won a GRAMMY®, an Oscar, a Golden Globe, and an American Music Award. Always active and stretching his creative talents, Medley has also sung on the soundtracks or performed the theme songs for 33 movies and TV shows and, in 2014, released his memoir, The Time of My Life, published by Da Capo Press.

Bucky Heard is an Alabama native and Auburn University alum. He's been one of the most popular and versatile performers in America for several years, headlining countless shows in major venues. His reputation as a gutsy rock and roll singer, with an incredible vocal range, has garnered much critical praise and a legion of fans.

A message from Bill Medley:

If you had told me, as a 16-year-old kid from Santa Ana, California, that I'd have a 60+ year career in music, I'd have thought you were nuts. Sure, it was the dream while I was writing songs when I should have been doing my homework, but I never imagined having the opportunity to write, record, perform, and travel the world with my best friend, my little brother Bobby (Hatfield). I've worked with and learned from the best, most incredible talents, and connected with an all-around fantastic group of people.

When Bobby died, a part of me knew I'd feel that hole in my heart forever. I thought the Righteous Brothers were over. But it wasn't until I heard Bucky Heard 10 years later that I realized I wasn't ready to give up what Bobby and I created together as The Righteous Brothers. "I've Had The Time of My Life" returning to the stage with Bucky, and it is my honor and pleasure to bring songs that mean just so very much to audiences everywhere.

I can't very well embark on a "farewell tour" without acknowledging some extraordinary people.

I offer my sincerest thanks and admiration to Little Richard and Ray Charles for their guidance, influence, and inspiration.

For their friendship and support, I offer my deepest gratitude to my friend, Elvis Presley, and my Manager of sixty years, David Cohen.

Thank you to all the musicians who have put up with me for all these years, on stage and off, for their time, talents, friendship, and devotion to the show. We've logged over a million miles on the road!

To anyone who bought a record, has come to a show over the years, who I have met backstage, thank you!

To all the agents, promoters, stage crews, and venue staff, we couldn't have done it without you, thank you!

Thank you to my family for putting up with 60 years of me living my dream. I love you!

You know, "If you believe in forever, then life is just a one-night stand." This isn't farewell, but I am grateful to you for coming to see us play near you this one last time.

I've had one helluva ride and one hell of a band!

With love and gratitude,

Bill Medley
